SUBJECT: POCKET-SIZE NOVEL PUBLICATIONS AND PICTURE MAGAZINES OBTAINED FROM INSPECTOR CASE, POLICE DEPARTMENT, CENSOR BUREAU, DETROIT, MICHIGAN
INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF OBSCENE MATTER

Night Supervisor McCorry, New York Office, was instructed that the Bureau be advised by morning of 9/2/55 re:

(1) Whether the Whisper, Incorporated, as described in the report of Alexander M. Garber, New York, dated October 12, 1951, is identical to Whisper, Incorporated, 213 West 53rd Street, New York 19, New York, the publisher of volume nine, number four, October, 1955, issue of "Whisper," which issue has come to the attention of the Director.

(2) Whether the "Whisper" magazine is shipped via express or common carrier. This should be ascertained without direct contact with the publisher.

This is for record purposes.

Dun and Bradstreet report of 9/1/54 re HARRISON Publications, ROBERT HARRISON, owner, of 1697 Broadway (aka 213 West 53rd Street) formerly at 201 West 52nd Street, NYC, reflects style registered by HARRISON 2/3/44 and used in connection with a group of magazines which are published by corporations in which HARRISON appears as principal. In these corporations, HARRISON appears as president and his sister, Mrs. HELEN STUDIN, appears as secretary-treasurer. Among these corporations are Beauty Parade, Incorporated; Eyeful Magazine Company, Incorporated; ROBERT T. HARRISON, Incorporated; Titter, Incorporated; Whisper, Incorporated; Wink, Incorporated; and Confidential, Incorporated.

Dun and Bradstreet report indicates that actual printing of publications is done by others on a contract basis. HARRISON Publications shares space with the affiliated corporations on the 14th floor at the 1697 Broadway address. Miss STUDIN, secretary to ROBERT HARRISON, declined all information of financial or operational nature to Dun and Bradstreet on 9/8/54. All such information had been declined in the past to Dun and Bradstreet representatives.

indicated that a report had been published re a hearing on charges against 6 news dealers in Queens County Court 10/21/54, when NICHOLAS ATLAS, attorney for Eyeful Magazine Company, Incorporated, stated before Judge JOHN F. SCHLEPPI that the magazine "Eyeful", "Wink" and "Titter" would be discontinued at the end of 1954. He also stated that "Whisper" would come out in a new form 11/23/55.

This supplementary Dun and Bradstreet report indicated that these magazines are published for the affiliated concerns dominated by ROBERT HARRISON. The Dun and Bradstreet report indicates that HARRISON Publications has an account with the Sterling National Bank, main office.

The current NY telephone directory lists "Whisper" publication at 213 West 53rd Street, telephone number PL 7-4080, and the HARRISON Publications at 1697 Broadway, NYC, with the same telephone number. The NY telephone company advised that PL 7-4080 is listed to HARRISON Publications, 1697 Broadway and that there are alternate listings for ROBERT HARRISON, DANIEL C. STUDIN, Beauty Parade, Incorporated, ROBERT HARRISON Incorporated, Confidential Incorporated, and Whisper Publications.

The telephone company's records reflect that 213 West 53rd Street and 1697 Broadway are addresses of the same building. The bills are sent to ROBERT HARRISON, Incorporated, of which ROBERT HARRISON is the president and Mrs. HELEN H. STUDIN is treasurer and secretary. The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York reflect an inquiry on JUNE HARRISON in June, 1955. There records indicate that ROBERT HARRISON and his wife, JUNE, have resided since February, 1955, at the Hotel Madison, 15 East 58th Street, NYC, with former residences of ROBERT HARRISON as 340 West 57th Street, 230 Central Park South, and 400 East 57th Street, all of NYC. Business was listed as ROBERT HARRISON Publications, 1697 Broadway. He was listed as president of ROBERT HARRISON Publications which published, among other things, Confidential Flirt, Whisper, Beauty Parade, and Eyeful. Their records show further that he had been in business for 10 years or more and that in the last few years, his magazine "Confidential" has had rather good circulation due to the publicity he received from WALTER WINCHELL. In view of above information, it is obvious that the Whisper Publications of 213 West 53rd Street, NYC, is the same as the Whisper formerly at 201 West 52nd Street, NYC, referred to in the report of SA ALEXANDER A. GARBER, 10/12/51, in the case entitled "Pocket-Size Novel Publications and Picture Magazines Obtained from Inspector CASE, Police Department, Censor Bureau, Detroit, Michigan; ITOM".

Supervisor CONEYS also stated the Bureau is interested in ascertaining whether instant magazine was shipped via express or common carrier.

It is noted that the October, 1955, issue of the magazine, page 4, shows that it has been entered as second class matter, 8/26/48, at the PO at NY, NY, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Inspector JAMES F. KENNY, USPO, NYC, advised that records in the classification section of the NY PO, reflect that authority for second class mailing privileges has been granted to Whisper Incorporated, 9/15/48 but that it had been discontined in January, 1950 at which time the company had obtained a permit for mailing privileges out of the Mt. Morris PO. The effective date of this latter permit was 1/24/50. Inspector KENNY stated that since 1950, Whisper, Incorporated has been mailing everything out of Mt. Morris, Illinois and that nothing has been mailed out of NY by the company. He stated that inquiry at the Mt. Morris, Illinois, PO would reveal exact information regarding the dates of mailing of the magazine in question together with information regarding volume shipped, etc.

Chicago has been asked to check discreetly at Mt. Morris PO and advise the Bureau by sutel.

The Bureau's attention was directed to the following reports in Bureau file 71-3362, relative to this matter:

Memorandum for Mr. Rosen

According to this supplementary report, there had been a published report at a hearing on charges against six news dealers in Queens County Court on October 21, 1954, indicating that Nicholas Atlas, attorney for Eyeful Magazine Company, Inc., stated before Judge John F. Schleppi that the magazines "Eyeful," "Wink," and "Titter" will be discontinued at the end of 1954. He also stated that "Whisper" would come out in a new form on November 23, 1955. The report stated further that the magazines are published for the affiliated concerns dominated by Robert Harrison.

The current Manhattan telephone directory reflects Whisper Publications at 213 West 53rd Street and the Harrison Publications at 1697 Broadway, both with the telephone number PL 7-4080. The New York telephone company records show that Harrison Publications of 1697 Broadway (PL 7-4080) have alternate listings, among which is Whisper Publications, 213 West 53rd Street. The telephone company report also indicates that the 53rd Street address is the same as the 1697 Broadway address. The bills are forwarded to Robert Harrison, Inc.

ASAC McCabe advised that investigation is proceeding to determine, if at all possible, whether material published by these firms is shipped via express, freight, or by the U. S. Mails. He will immediately advise the Bureau of the results of this investigation.
